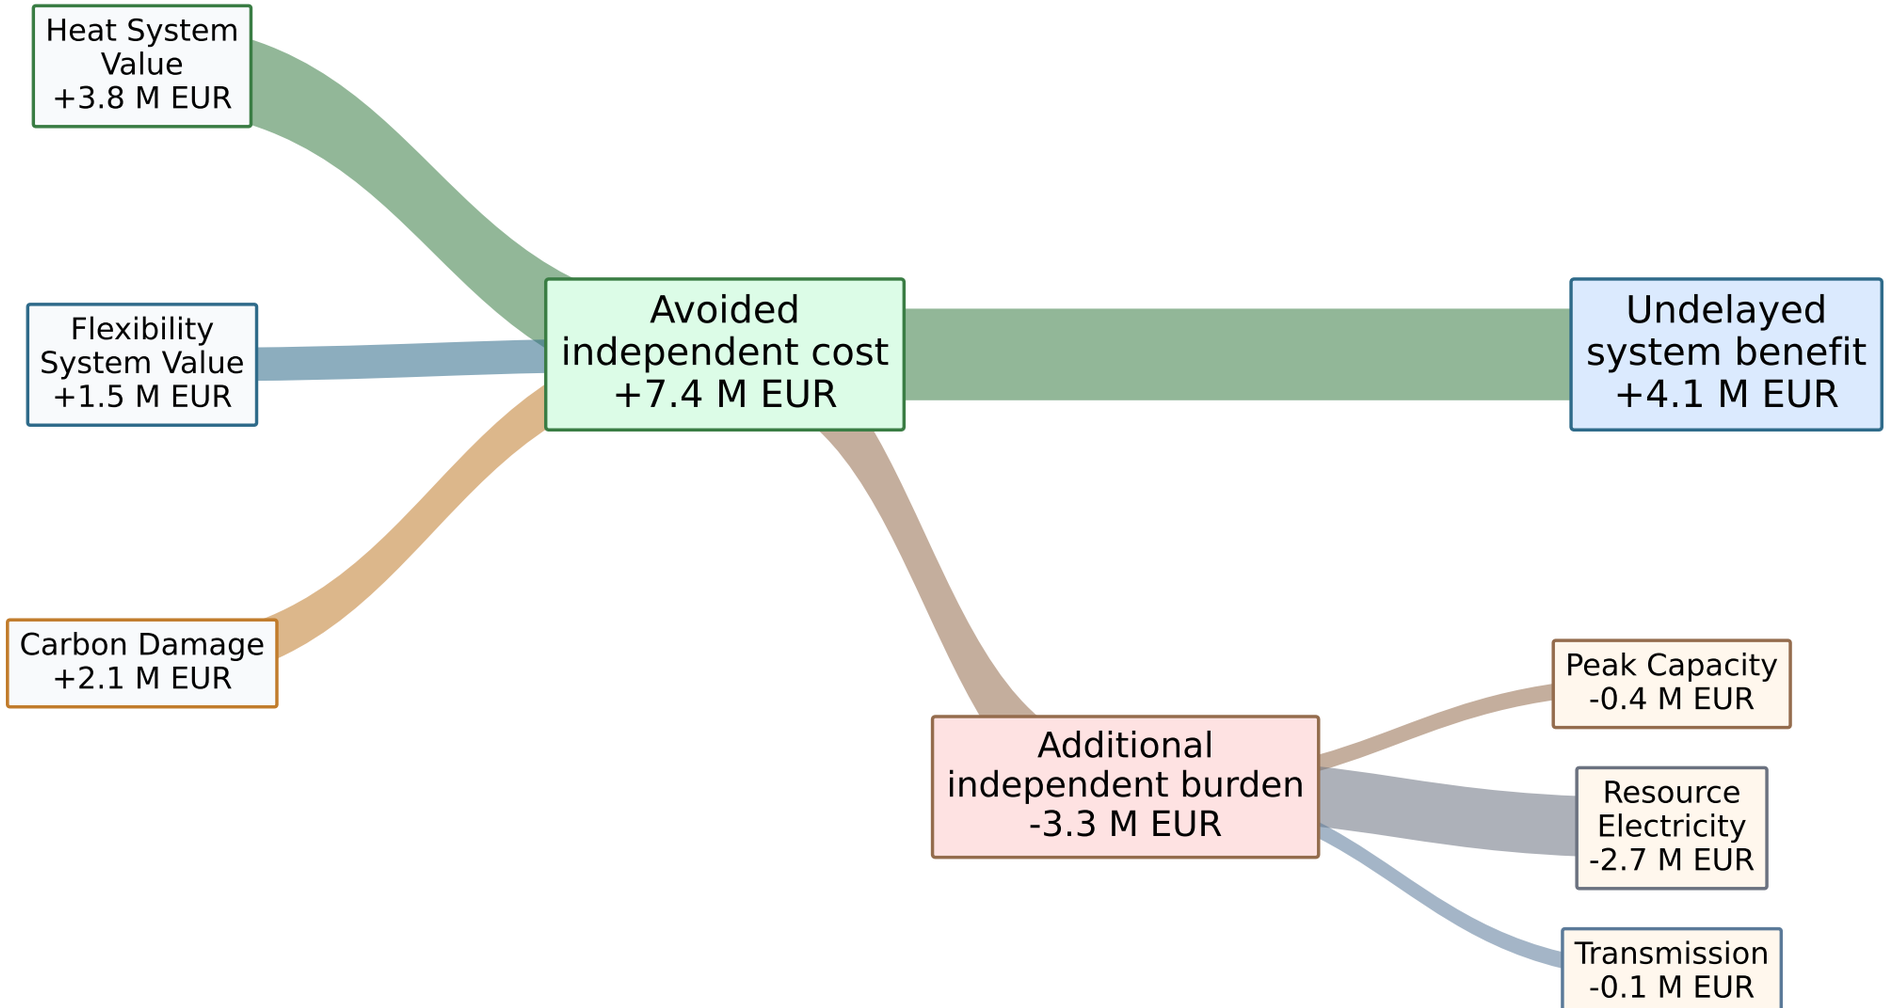
Independent system benefit: avoided cost nets out to the undelayed siPUE credit



This is the independent accounting ledger behind the siPUE credit (Table credit-ablation), not private market cash flow: heat and flexibility avoided cost and carbon damage are offset by additional electricity, peak, and transmission burden before construction delay is applied.