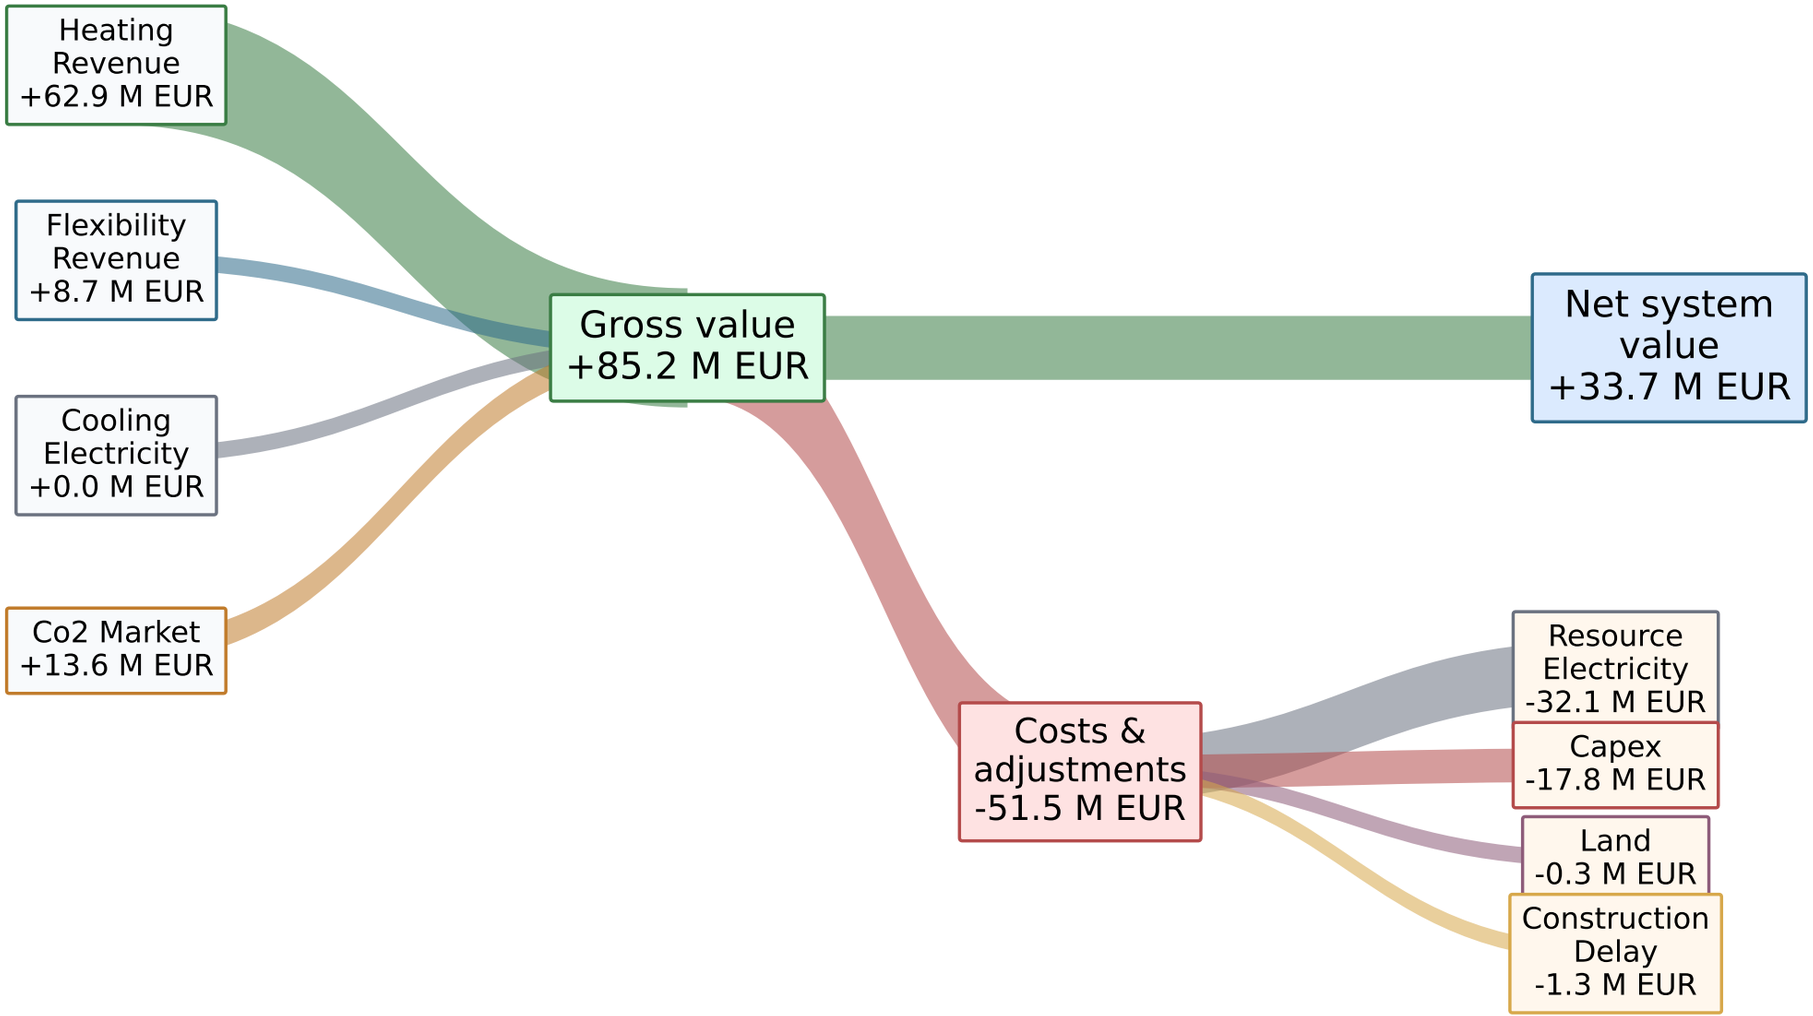
System value: gross revenue nets out to system value after costs and adjustments



Business value and policy costs are separated: heat/flex value can be offset by electricity, carbon, capex, land, and delay before net system value is realized.